

Take Charge of your Sexual Health!

SEXUAL HEALTH RESOURCES on campus

McKinley Health Center - 333-2700

- Gynecological exams, birth control, emergency contraception, HIV & STD testing
- Condoms, latex barriers, lubricant, pregnancy tests at Health Resource Centers (free for those who have paid their health service fee)
- Sexual Health Educator-presentations, individual appointments to address sexual concerns
- Sexual Health Peers – Outreach presentations, awareness and advocacy
- www.mckinley.illinois.edu Handouts, information, online birth control class, STD risk assessment

Office of LGBT Resources - 244-8863

- Resource for anyone who is interested and committed to learning about Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender people, issues, and concerns
- Offers support & guidance for LGBT students, faculty, staff & their allies
- Provides support services, educational programming & referral information
- Has LGBT related books and periodicals for student or staff use
- <http://studentaffairs.illinois.edu/diversity/lgbt/index.html>

Women's Resources Center – 333-3137

- Provides crisis intervention, information and referral, supportive counseling, individual advocacy, and support groups:
  - Rape/sexual assault
  - Abuse in relationships/dating abuse/domestic violence
  - Sexual Harassment and Gender Discrimination
- Programs for prevention, education, and activism
- <http://studentaffairs.illinois.edu/diversity/women/index.html>

Counseling Center – 333-3704

Therapists available to address the following areas:

- Compulsive Sex/Sex Addiction
- LGBT and Gender Identity Concerns
- Childhood Sexual Abuse
- Sexual Violence
- Domestic Violence
- Other Sexual Concerns due to a Psychological Condition
- www.counselingcenter.illinois.edu

U of I Libraries

- A number of book titles in the area of sexual health are available through the University library systems.